Commissioner (Tourism) shall have full powers to draw and disburse the amount after sanction of the Committee.
- (f) In case of Government institution, semi-Government institution engaged in and preparation of feasibility report, HIMCON and Consultants registered and approved by the State Government, the Commissioner (Tourism) will have powers to approve the Consultant/Agency for the preparation of feasibility report and determine the extent of payment to be made for this purpose. However, in case of other Consultants/Agencies Committee mentioned above would have the powers for approval and deciding the extent of payment for the preparation of feasibility report.

4. Acquisition of land for large projects.—The Government may acquire land for large units as defined in the Land Acquisition Act for the purposes detailed in the said Act, subject to its being satisfied. The acquisition may be on such terms and conditions as the Government may decide.

5. Building materials.—The Government may give priority to new units in the matter of allotment of controlled building material like cement, iron and steel etc. The Civil Supplies Department will allot special quota for meeting the minimum requirement of the units on the basis of the recommendations from the Commissioner (Tourism).

6. Subsidy on rate of interest.—(1) The small scale units with capital investment (land, building and machinery) upto Rs. 1.50 lacs receiving the term loan (loan for land building and machinery) from Himachal Pradesh Financial Corporation/Scheduled Banks will be subsidised the rate of interest so that it is 3% below the lending rate of the Himachal Pradesh Financial Corporation provided that the original repayment schedule is adherely abided by the unit.

(2) The Himachal Pradesh Financial Corporation/scheduled banks will charge subsidised rate of interest from the eligible units and will certify eligibility of the units at their own level. The scheduled banks will place reimbursement claim between the actual rate of interest and subsidised rate to the Himachal Pradesh Financial Corporation who will make the payment to the banks on behalf of the Government of Himachal Pradesh. Himachal Pradesh Financial Corporation will also have their reimbursement in similar method. Commissioner (Tourism) will place money in advance with Himachal Pradesh Financial Corporation for this incentive and the said Corporation will submit quarterly report of unit-wise disbursement to the Commissioner (Tourism) who will go on placing funds accordingly during the operation of the incentives. The unit who have started running on 3-9-84 or after will be eligible for this incentive.

7. Subsidy and Capital Incentives.—(1) The Government of Himachal Pradesh will give 25% outright subsidy on the capital investment to the Restaurants and Cafeterias which started have functioning with effect from 3-9-84 or after. The Hotels are already eligible for such subsidy by the Central Government. The agreement to be executed in this behalf by the beneficiaries be in the prescribed form.

(2) The subsidy admissible will be subject to a maximum of Rs. 1.00 lac per unit.

8. Construction of Cafeteria and Kiosks for un-employed.—The Tourism Department may construct cafeterias at places of Tourist interest like picnic spots, important archaeological sites and important spots on highways etc. The persons trained in hotel management and catering and holding such certificates will be given such kiosks/cafeterias at identified place on a nominal rental of Rs. 100 p.m. They may also be given subsidy up to Rs. 5000 in each case, for purchase of furniture, utensils, cutlery, crockery etc.

9. Water Charges.—Water to hotels, restaurants and cafeterias will be made available on the same rates as are being charged from other industrial units.

10. Eligibility.—(i) Only those hotels, restaurants and cafeterias will be eligible for the grant of incentives under rule 6, 7, and 8 which have got prior approval of the Commissioner (Tourism)/Committee respectively as the case may be. However, these incentives will also be available for the expansion of the existing units, if so approved provided that such expansion is at least 10% of their existing capacity.

(ii) Any unit, obtaining the incentives under these rules, will have to run the same as hotel, restaurant or cafeteria at least for a period of 10 years failing which the entire amount shall be recoverable with interest.

By order,
A. K. GOSWAMI,
Commissioner-cum-Secretary.
